◀ BIOGRAPHY ▶

- Since he was young, Damian aka dj bigtunez knew he was destined to spin records, "I just loved listening to dj's that could mix it up...ever since seeing Jazzy Jeff get down on the Fresh Fest I was hooked!" He eventually saved up enough to get his own set-up and got to work on perfecting his craft. Gaining his inspirations from legends such as Jay Master Jay, Jazzy Jeff and DJ AM. He supports deejaying as an art that involves more than simply playing music. -

- Based in London but hailing straight out of Trinidad and Tobago, dj bigtunez is an innovator that can bring a show to any venue, underground or commercial. His deejay resume in the last five years shows significant accomplishments from being one of the official deejays at 2014 Bahrain Grand Prix (already invited back for 2015), to deejaying for the Escada brand to being invited to do mixes for BBC 1 Xtra/Radio 1. The last five years has seen him ply his deejay craft in London's buzzing West End, Central London, with five residencies per week. As he says in his own words " London's west end night club scene is probably one of the best in world as London is probably the most cosmopolitan capital in the world and you got thousands of nationalities partying during the week and the weekend." He blends his unique deejaying skills playing from Commercial Chart, Deep House, EDM, R&B, Hip-Hop, Reggae/Dancehall, Afrobeats, and Dubstep to Trap and not to mention Club Classics. This has lead him to be one of the most "in demand" and "go to" deejay's in London's West End. -

- His deejaying skills has not only taken him to London's buzzing West End and the Formula 1 Grand Prix in Bahrain, but also to other parts of the world where he has been flown out to perform at night clubs like the very exclusive Affinity Club in Cape Town, South Africa also exclusive private events notably at the world famous Molenvliet Vineyard and Wine Estate in Stellenbosch, South Africa. Club Reflex Prague in the Czech Republic and was the main feature at the one of Bahrain's largest and most exclusive night-clubs Club Ibrida during the F1 Grand Prix weekend 2014. In London and across the UK he has done gigs and held residencies at notable venues Funky Buddha, Electric Birdcage, Shaka Zulu, Club 10, Jewel, Ruby Blue, Piccadilly Institute, Tiger Tiger and also the famous Kyashii Lounge a venue graced by the likes of Nas, Damian Marley, and the late Amy Winehouse. He also flies to his homeland to deejay at the Trinidad Carnival (second largest after Brazil) with one of best and Premium Bands in Trinidad Paparazzi Mas and across the country at the all-inclusive parties in the build up to the massive two day celebration. -

- Last four years have seen dj bigtunez gone into producing his own music while still doing remixes, mash-ups and bootleg edits some of which has gotten over 70k plays and in excess of 11k plus downloads on his soundcloud page. His bootlegs and remixes are now blogged by the likes of "Smash the Club" one of the biggest music bloggers in LA and Las Vegas. He loves blending soca music native of his Trinidadian roots with House and Hip Hop music. The likes of which producers such Diplo and Major Lazer are experiencing with at the moment. He regularly plays his remixes/mash-ups live in his sets and performance gigs. -
